

Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

Meekness and humility of heart are what we are to learn from him.

His yoke is easy and his burden light if and only if we trust that Christ has the answers. Not medical science. Not superstitions. Christ will give what we need, if we only turn to him and unburden ourselves.

My dear brothers and sisters, we will soon be blessing our beautiful awe-inspiring crucifix.

As we look upon the crucifix, let us call to mind that Christ has brought to completion the sacrament of his love for the Church.

As we bow before this glorious image of Him, Let us remember that in His own blood Christ has removed all divisions and out of the many nations created the one people of God.

As we venerate Him, let us remember that we are Christ’s disciples and are called to follow Him, picking up our own cross each day. May we get caught up in the power and mystery of the cross more deeply each day...
