PLEASE BE AWARE OF SCAMMERS

Periodically scammers or hackers will spoof employee emails for fraudulent missions. These scammers will send a seemingly urgent request to employees or other parishioners for financial assistance or the purchase of gift cards. These emails appear to be coming from an employee's email; however, they are fake email addresses designed to look like employee addresses. No employee of St. Anna's including Father Randy would request urgent financial assistance or the purchase of gift cards via email. Please do not respond to these individuals. If you have any questions or concerns regarding emails that seem to come from St. Anna's, it's employees or Father Randy Mattox; please call the parish office for assistance.

ST. CECILIA'S CORNER CONTINUITY

Over the last couple of weeks, we Roman Catholics have witnessed the death of one Pope, the meeting of the Cardinals to create a new Pope and now, Pope Leo XIV. I want you to stop for a moment and think about it. There was not a bloody attempt at a coup, there was no public wrangling and politicizing. And the structures to do all this were in place to facilitate these transitions. Some of my Protestant friends were stunned at how it went down. They could not believe the order of it all. And we welcome our new Pope, Leo, who of all things is from the US. The Catholic Church teaches us three very important things in this moment. Continuity and tradition sustain us in times of trial. Order provides us with the route to take when we need it. And surprises can still come, even amid the order. Personally, I did not pick him to be Pope. But I am very excited for him. One of my friends speaks of him in this regard. "He believes, he loves the Virgin Mary and he is a really nice guy." That is good enough for me. Pray for Pope Leo and for the Church. It's a really great time to be Catholic.

THE ORGAN IS COMING

The organ will be finished on May 30th and arrive sometime in the first two weeks of June. Watch the official Facebook page for photos.
