PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

The Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, also called Palm Sunday, represents the gate through which we enter into Holy Week. This is a time in which we contemplate the last moments of the life of Jesus. We recall Jesus's entrance into Jerusalem, welcomed by a festive crowd, and then we recall his Passion. As early as 400, a procession with palms took place. The liturgy is entirely characterized by the theme of Jesus's Passion. This is true particularly regarding the Gospel texts which, according to the liturgical year, present the passion narrative. The first reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah (the Song of the Suffering Servant, Isaiah 50), becomes a prayer in Psalm 22 with the refrain "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?" The terror that Jesus bore in obeying the Father "to the point of death, even death on a cross" is attested to in the Second Reading from the Letter to the Philippians. This is not so much the celebration of "grief" and "lament," as much as a week that expresses the "heart" of the Paschal Mystery when Jesus gave His life for our salvation. Jesus became man because he loves us, and because of love He gives His life. It is through this obedience that Jesus loves the Father and loves the men and women He came to save.
